Low Deposit. "Approaching your wedding day photography with passion". I endeavor to capture the personality of your guests just being themselves, involving myself in the moment. Participating and absorbing in the occasion with your family and friends with no awkward requests placed on anyone. What's important to me is that in the years to come, you can look back at the wedding photographs and remember the images we created together. Couples who book my wedding photography tend to be looking for a natural, informal, relaxed approach. Not wanting photographs of the wedding party to take several hours. My photography is about involvement, participation, relaxation and lasting memories. After all ... its your day. "I adore being a wedding photographer". I am privileged to leave a lasting impression in many peoples lives. Enjoying the spontaneity in taking photographs and the unexpected moments that "I love to photograph my family with less stress, relaxation, less fuss, openness, capturing a sense of how it really is in knowing how to capture the best of person and of everyone in the place .
