Funeral Singers currently provides musical services for ceremonies in the London, Surrey, Sussex, Hampshire and Kent regions. Our talented and professional team of singers and musicians will happily perform your favourite traditional hymns, gospel songs or other popular repertoire, chosen by you. At such a difficult time, we appreciate that you will be tied up with arranging a number of suppliers to ensure that everything on the day of the ceremony goes according to plan. In order to take the weight off your shoulders, our friendly and dedicated team, who themselves have experience of planning funerals, will work directly with you, advising and guiding you so that your musical choices are a reflection of your friend or loved one. Our work doesn't stop there, we aim to help you, avoid those awkward silences often encountered during the singing of hymns, whilst at the same time helping you to create a special feel to the ceremony; so that you and your guests can grieve, reminisce, but yet feel uplifted. You will be pleased to know that we offer a number of musical packages to suit various ceremonies and budgets. The telephone conversations with the team prior to my brother's funeral were very reassuring and suggestions for music were most helpful. Those attending the funeral commented on how well the music was played and how the singers performed. I was pleased that several of the singers were able to join us for refreshments after the service as it provided an opportunity for us to thank them all personally' 'I would like to thank funeral singers for providing such a wonderful send off for my beloved mother, the team were professional and courteous and helpful throughout which is exactly what I needed at such a difficult time. The musicians were fantastic and really made an impact during the service. I would not hesitate to recommend Funeral Singers to anyone planning a funeral for a loved one' Contact us now for a quote to discuss your requirements. A number of our talented team are available to assist you.
