I have an 11 year old German Shepherd looking for a wee companion. Her Bf is 16 yr old lab and his health is now declining and I don't think she'll cope without him. She's very maternal which is why she would accept a puppy much easier, has to be a small breed (not too small) so that she can keep up with it while playing and out for walks. please no staffys or bulldogs We are a large family so someone is always in her home and any puppy will have the same happy healthy lives our old boy and girl has. Ps Sister is a dog groomer so lots of pampering too.;
