I have my stunning tiny female chihuahua 12 weeks old shes so gorgeous and amazingly friendly but unfortunately my 2 year old will not leave her alone and is constantly being nasty to her so as much as it hurts i think its best i find her another home :(

Shes had both injections flead and wormed and is doing amazing with her toilet training, her new owner will need to encourage her go toilet outside to keep her trained. I have pictures of her mum and dad and there weights. I will be asking questions and a loving friendly forever home is a must. Any questions are more than welcome :) Bridgend south.
