I am a second year clarinettist at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama. I also have second study saxophone lessons. I am offering to teach both of these instruments to children or adults of any ability. I have a valid DBS check and insurance and am awaiting confirmation to be able to teach privately at the College. I also have a clarinet available for rent if you are a complete beginner or just want to try something new. If you're at all interested please do get in.
