Thinking of buying a home in France, but afraid to commit?

Why not rent first and see how good it is?

Available for rent is this very comfortable two bedroom ground floor apartment in the beautiful village of La Redorte on the famous Canal du Midi!

Nestled in the Languedoc Roussillon region of France, just an easy 40 Kms drive from the medieval city of Carcassonne with very cheap flights from several UK airports, La Redorte is in the heart of one of the biggest wine growing regions of France and within just a ten minute drive of the bustling market towns of Olonzac and Lezignan des Corbieres.

The ancient Roman town of Narbonne is an easy 30 minutes drive away and provides a fantastic day out, particularly on Thursdays and Sundays where the big markets are filled with goods from all over the world.

The Narbonne food market, Les Halles, is renowned across the region for its diversity of meats, fish, cheeses and other foodstuffs. A true gourmet's delight and well worth a visit, while the range of restaurants and brasseries provide for all culinary tastes.

If you want to see what living in France is like, or if you are just looking for a long break from the treadmill of the rat race, La Redorte is the place for you.

This lovely friendly village has the advantage of being superbly situated, can be reached on foot from the Canal du Midi, just a few minutes and a short drive, several shops, a wonderful bakery and a doctor, a doctor and dentist, pharmacy and restaurants.

Why not join the locals on Saturday morning for a glass of wine and some oysters in the village square, where you can buy the freshest mussels, oysters and other shellfish for your lunch?

The apartment is fully equipped for 4 guests. Both bedrooms are en suite and in the fully equipped kitchen you will find all you need to prepare anything from simple snacks to a gourmet dinner using the
