Tarot Psychological Portrait part I – workshops

First time in LondonWho am I? Where am I going? What is the purpose of my life? Why is it happening to me again? What about my finances? What steps do I need to take to open up to infinite abundance? I want to be happy! How to do it?

Certainly you must have asked yourself such questions many times over and you have been looking for answers. They are in an individual program that is coded in your date of birth, which shows your thru identity. The birth code holds the key to the incarnation of your soul on Earth. It is special for everyone and defines their whole life, throughout experiences and all life lessons. Understanding it, will enable you to experience your time very consciously and without fear, allowing you to fully open up to all the best possibilities. By introducing changes, you will remove blockades and above all you will experience understanding of all areas of your life. Tarot's Psychological Portrait is a wonderful technique, allowing you to understand all areas of yourself. It is based on archetypes of psychology, philosophy and tarot cards; to have the knowledge is not necessary.

I cordially invite you to a workshop where you can not only learn this
