We are a new company but have considerable experience in all aspects of Window Blinds having run a successful Blind and Awnings company in Manchester before moving into a different field in another country. Having returned to live in Preston in 2017, we have now set up a new this new company working hand in hand with a local blind company established in the 1960s, and continuously run by the same family for two generations.

We are a husband and wife team working together to bring the very best in both traditional, and latest blind technology, to homes and businesses across Lancashire.
