About Montgomerie View Montgomerie View is a much-anticipated new development located in the picturesque town of Irvine in North Ayrshire. Offering a range of 2, 3, 4 and 5 bedroom homes, ranging from terrace to detached, these keenly priced homes from our Scottish Town Range are proving extremely popular. Irvine is a new town, meaning an existing town that was built around a historic core after the Second World War to disperse the population. Located on the coast of the Firth of Clyde, new town status was granted in 1966, making Irvine the only new town located on the coast. Within this popular residential area of Irvine, woodlands walks and beautiful countryside views are on hand. A charming village is being created by, making Montgomerie View the perfect location for families with close proximity to the town's main shopping routes, connecting into Ayrshire. You will not be disappointed if you wish to live in a new home. The school is a 10-minute drive away and Glasgow is a 20-minute drive away. The regular bus service and the new town are 40 minutes away. The new town is an ideal place for commuting, offering hours Monday to Friday 6pm. Please note, the bus is closed on Saturdays 11am to 11pm and on Sundays 11am to 11pm. Please note, the bus is closed on Saturdays 11am to 11pm and on Sundays 11am to 11pm.
