Do you hate your boss, Have you just had a baby? And don't want to return to work? Or do you hate your job and the commute to work? Are you at college or uni and need an income? Would you like to work from home around family and other commitments. Work flexible hours to suit yourself? I have a home based business and work 5 and a half hours a week around my children I have chronic illnesses but still need something to do. Would you like earned incentives like a car and holidays? If so get in touch with me,,,
