Occupying a private location in the picturesque township of Kildonan the subjects for sale comprise an immaculate and very spacious detached bungalow together with detached block built garage. This is a house that goes that one step further to ensure that purchasers have what is now expected of a modern family home, especially having 3 bedrooms all with en-suite facilities. The subjects were completed in January 2010 and have been finished to a high standard benefiting from UPVC double glazed windows and doors, oil fired central heating, light neutral carpets, contemporary chrome recessed spotlighting throughout and attractive internal six panel pine doors with pine wood skirtings, fittings & finishings to match. From the front there are lovely widespread views across the surrounding croft land towards the hills of the Outer Hebrides in the.
