Quietly situated in a friendly crofting community the subjects for sale comprise of a very well presented 1 storey house dating from circa. 1965 with a rear dining room extension added some 8 years ago and the upper floor having been developed within the last year. Over the years this property has been very tastefully upgraded and now benefits from Upvc double glazed doors and windows, gas central heating and new pine internal doors, skirtings and finishings. A new contemporary bathroom has been installed on the ground floor and quality floor coverings have also recently fitted. The house is freshly decorated and in excellent order both internally and externally. The accommodation within comprises entrance vestibule, hallway, lounge, kitchen, utility room, dining room, new bathroom and 3 bedrooms on the ground floor. The upper floor offers a 4th spacious double bedroom and beautiful shower room with office area off landing. From its slightly elevated position above the township road there are open views from the front across the township and over to Loch Harport and southerly views to the Cuillin Mountain range. 25 Portnalong occupies a pretty and generous garden area and has a small productive vegetable plot situated on the opposite side of the road. There is a parking area at the front of the house and a neat gravel driveway leading up to the.
