Owners Comments 'We didn't realise that when we built our home, we would be tucked away in a little piece of heaven where time stands still.' 'It has become for us our haven, surrounded by birds and wildlife. Our children have grown up having had an outdoor adventure of a lifetime.' Introduction With origins dating back to 1846, this gorgeous barn has undergone a beautiful and sympathetic restoration in the last 20 years by our clients to retain much of its intrinsic splendour including the slates and timbers of the original barn, but has also been comprehensively extended to provide spacious, well proportioned accommodation creating a striking home approaching 5500 sqft. Positioned upon a tranquil private lane in the New Forest village of Newbridge, this elegant residence offers inspiring views across its paddocks towards the New Forest and offers opportunity to be appreciated by a wide range of prospective buyers; the paddocks and the excellent Forest riding are ideal for the equestrian enthusiast, the recently constructed substantial workshop offers commercial/home office usage and 'The Dovecote' a most impressive self contained attached cottage addition, offers wonderful dual occupancy or holiday letting potential.
