Ford ka for sale. This is my wife's car she's had it from New so only one owner. Just had a new mot few days ago. It does have some advisors can easily be fixed but we don't want to spend more money on the car as we need a bigger car. Baby on the way and with the ka and we have a yaris the boots are to small for prams. Sad to see the car go great drive. Passed every mot with no advisories on it apart from about 4 years ago. Never had any major work done on this car the most we have spent was 120 on a suspension. service history 2 keys. Come and have a look 07504783331
