The BMW S1000RR is quite possibly the best sports bike to date, it is absolutely awesome and to be honest it is almost faultless, in fact it is faultless. The bike has and does everything you want right across the board and has been so well designed and engineered it walks all over any of its competition. In 2012 the S1000RR took another giant leap thanks to BMW giving it an almost complete over haul, the looks haven't changed but in almost every other department things have been massively improved, giving the S1000 total super bike supremacy. This stunning example of the 2013 S1000RR comes in the BMW's stunning optional Motrad colours and is dripping in cutting edge electronics it has also been given some very tasteful extras which are a cracking Arrow exhaust system, R&G front and rear sliders, R&G engine protectors, R&G tail tidy and a double bubble front screen. This bike is a must view for anyone wanting the complete super bike package!! don't miss this sensational machine!! It also comes with our 12 month warranty and roadside assistance, full BMW service history, HPI checked and PDI. The bike is also Data.
