Hello everyone, My name is Francesco and I teach Italian on Italki.com (<http://www.italki.com/teacher/1344663>) and preply.com (<http://preply.com/en/tutor/skype/francesco-v/12127/>) I was born in Rome and Italian is my native language. Have you ever wondered how it would be travel in the country of the gladiators, of the Pope and Michelangelo and to be able to communicate with the locals in their native language? Discover places and have experiences that only a person who speaks Italian language may have? Or, are you a student who needs any private lessons? Here I am! I offer Italian language classes via Skype. I'm available for group classes too. The lessons are customizable, according to your needs: grammar, conversation, reading, diction. Forget the old boring lessons, I teach in a quick and efficient manner, using audio and video. You don't have to buy any books; I'll provide you everything you need. It's possible to do a 30 minutes trial lesson. The price for an academic hour (50 mins) is 15 Euros. Regards Francesco
