Used MacBook Pro for sale. Has been formatted and upgraded to El Capitan. I will format it again to remove my Apple ID from it and set it to factory defaults, with El Capitan on it. Slight scratch and dent on the underside, hardly noticable and can't see it in the picture. A slight blemish on the right hand side edge as you can see in one of the pictures. Other than these imperfections this machine is 100% working and is a fantastic machine still. I'm selling it because i have a new.
