Hi Ladies,
 There is a new private women's club aimed at the young at heart, intellectual women over 50.

If you feel the need to connect, to engage, to be stimulated (discussion, knowledge sharing, debating) or if you just want to relax ...all from the comfort of your home, you may want to give it a go.

Think of the drawing room of a real world private club but in an online setting.
 It is all live (through Skype, Google hangout and Webex) where you can interact, see and talk to fellow members. You may not want to put the camera on if you prefer not to do so of course.

It can be as serious or as chilled out as the mood dictates :)
