ELDERLY SHOPPING SERVICE

Many seniors are homebound due to health or medical conditions or unable to drive. They need help with everyday errands, like shopping for groceries, bill payments, post office visits. Elderly shopping and support service offers a valuable service to seniors or anyone short on time. To fund the service we ask clients to pay a charge towards the costs of the service depending on the level of service they receive. Whether you need help with those day to day tasks yourself, or you have a family or friend who you think needs a hand, Elderly Shopping and Support Services could be the answer, all our support team member are CRB checked to provide services to vulnerable clients in their homes. Email us today for a broacher and to book an appointment with one of our mobile.
