This is a Suzuki GS125 clone (the ad settings dictate the ad heading - sorry), by Norton Villiers (it's not a Norton - the name was purchased by a Taiwanese company). Great little learner bike, MOT till March 2016. Replaced the front brake with Real Suzuki GS125 calipers, so can use Suzuki pads, cleaned the carburettor, so it runs great now, stripped and cleaned the starter motor, so it starts nicely off the button (has a kickstarter too), sidestand and centre stand, and new battery. Has had a few knocks (before I acquired), but it doesn't affect the running. Was bought for my wife, but she has decided to concentrate on horses!
