Sole Moves Removals are a family run removal and relocation company based in Brighton, East Sussex. Sole Moves provide both local and long distance removals offering domestic and business movers a professional and reliable alternative to the large expensive removal companies who operate in the Brighton area while still offering the same if not better level of service. Keith and his team pride themselves on the excellent reputation they have gained for providing both a quality service and value for money. They have achieved this by consistently providing an excellent level of service possible combined with a more personal approach only to be found when using a small family run business. Just take a look at some of their customer reviews below to see what others have been saying. Moving home within Brighton and Hove area or relocating elsewhere within the UK? Sole Moves can provide a realistic quote offering a cost effective alternative to large and expensive removal companies. The firm aims to supply customers with a professional removal service and has packing facilities. The expert staff allows clients to be stress free. The service is designed to meet expectations every time. Friendly, flexible and fast, the removal service is charged by the hour for ease of pricing. Available for collection or deliveries, the company is fully insured. The company is managed by Keith Davis who has been involved in the removals industry for many years. Keith Davis is well trained to manage the company, having previously worked for Premier Lets and Sales Ltd. Sole Moves has an expanding customer base, located in the local area, including the city.
