Large advert boards exist at the roadside of the nearest Arterial road and a local traffic junction to the company's premises. The school is based on only 1.5 acres with a 1000sqm workshop and a 1000sqm office.

The company is primarily a motorcycle training school taking in customers from 16 years of age upwards. It trains beginners right through to the advanced rider.

There is currently a small retail section selling motorcycle clothing and equipment with room to expand to offer a wide range of items such as motorcycle security, parts and accessories.

There is also space and scope to diversify and offer a full workshop to service, repair and sell new and used motorcycles on site which would increase turnover significantly.
