Telephone Engineer, Eastbourne. East Sussex With 25 years of experience in the telephone Engineers craft, telephone points provides telecom services to customers throughout East Sussex and was founded in 2002. The company provides additional telephone extension sockets / points fitted around the home for the internet and Sky. I carry out fault finding rewiring and relocation of telephone sockets, installation of indoor and outdoor bells, networking of computers, testing and trouble shooting of problems on broadband line with a full comprehensive report to present to your provider. You can be assured of a friendly professional service or your money back. I have been working in the Telephone Engineers sector for over 25 years. Having previously worked for BT, Ericsson, and all the major mobile telecom companies, and I am more than qualified to look after your telephone and broadband needs. The business provides the general public with a professional telephone service and operates from on-site facilities. The experience I have gained ensure customers are satisfied with the service I provide. The service is intended to be cost effective every time. Telephone Points has a growing network of clients, located throughout the South East, including pubs, clubs and restaurants. I have built up well over 10,000 satisfied customers during the past 11 years of doing business in the Hastings, Bexhill, Eastbourne, Tenterden, Cranbrook and other towns and villages in the South East. For the very best service please telephone Eastbourne 01323.
