 Same day despatch and free delivery  The Belmont is a very stylish suite, covered in smooth, supple bonded leather. Its modern and stylish design and soft, padded cushions gives the Belmont a lovely feel making this an exceptional suite. These sofas are also very practical – they look great but will cope happily with the most energetic of families. The upper parts of the sofa are made of bonded leather, which gives it a great look and feel. The sides and back are leather match. So the sofa combines a great finish with a high degree of practicality. The hollow fibre in the seat cushions is of a high quality and protected by a thick felt envelope and the frame is double padded. All fillings are fully fire retardant and meet or exceed UK safety.
