PR Design is here to help and assist you with all your design, content management and admin needs for you website, business or brand. Working in fashion & retail within the online sector for a number of years we understand what is needed to keep an online business running and the areas that sometimes get left behind due to workload and time constraints. Specialising in email marketing, creative content, social media and image management we offer the extra pair of hands you may need during busy periods, cover for sick leave or holiday leave. You are able to save money and time by outsourcing your projects however small or big. ;
