The park boasts WiFi hotspots and is pet friendly. With the beach a stones throw away it is the ideal location for a relaxing water on the Northumbrian coast! The marina is a great place to walk along and Crossbridge Bay.

It's a great ideal base for exploring Northumbria and its many beautiful towns and regions as seen on ITV's tales of Northumberland with Robson Green.

It's only a short walk into the fishing port of Amble and a short drive (or walk) to Warkworth, Alnwick, Durham, and Bamburgh, and lots more. Also fantastic for runners, cyclists, adventurers, fishing and lots more. You could even jump off the train from Alnwick and visit Scotland's fantastic capital city of Edinburgh for the day, where you can shop till you drop, only a 1-hour train journey away!
