This is an extremely rare Norton Commando John Player Special Limited Edition, it is one of only twenty eight genuine UK official builds with only two owners from new. This motorcycle has undergone a complete restoration and has never been used since therefore it is in an outstanding condition. Included in the sale is a twin seat which has also been fully restored and it also has the rear foot pegs. This is a serious investment opportunity as this motorcycle can only increase in value, the opportunity to purchase one of these motorcycles is a rare event as finding one of these beautiful motorcycles with only two previous owners in such a lovely condition is something which occurs very infrequently. Cars and bikes taken in exchange. Finance offered subject to status. World and Nationwide delivery available. E
