Velvet Storm is a dynamic partnership which offers the very best photographic service in today's ever changing market place. By working closely with you prior to starting any photographic project to get the right feel for what you want, we are able to create bespoke, clearly defined packages to suit every requirement. We are able to service a wide range of photographic needs, from elegant portrait shots through to full wedding packages. We offer a full framing and printing service, as well as unique publications through to digital manipulation and retouching works. Our Wedding Work... We consider weddings and civil ceremonies as a privilege to have the responsibility and the trust of our clients to take photographs of people on their very special day. At Velvet Storm Photography we believe wedding photography to be a wonderful, creative opportunity that is always full of amazing surprises and beautiful pictures. We don't want the wedding photographs to be a laborious, drawn out exercise that impedes on your day, but rather that we blend into the background to become as unobtrusive as possible to ensure that we capture as much as we can in a natural, relaxed setting that highlights the uniqueness and special aspects of your day.
