Restored Victorian trunk chest coffee table.

I found this trunk in a market in need of some restoration and a lot of tlc.

I sanded it down extensively and gave it a coat of dark brown stain to bring it back to its original colour. I then gave it 2 coats of bees wax to protect it.

I also painted the inside a vintage willow colour to give it a fresh and cleaner look.

Fortunately the trunk retains all its original cast iron parts; hinges, handles, bottom corners and key plate.

I think that this trunk would be perfect as a coffee table or blanket box giving any room a touch of quirkiness and country decor.
