ARGENT is for ADULT PHIMOSIS/PARAPHISMOSIS ONLY Argent Argent is for adult phimosis a product in powder form and is to be diluted upon which the gland should be bathed twice daily morning and evening. Expectations from Argent solution is:-

Days 1-7. You should experience a tickling sensation at the tip of your gland which is only confirming the healing process has begun. The discharge of white like foam or dead skin will reduce or even stop during this week. Days 7-14. You should be able to pull the skin down the gland only when submerged in the Argent solution, although at this stage only as far as is comfortable as additional tearing to the skin will only delay the healing process. Days 14-21. You should now have confidence in the product and know it is working, during this period you will feel as though the tight banding is moving towards the tip of your gland as though being drawn away from your body by the Argent solution. Days 21-28 You should have restored function being able to retract over the gland, the Argent solution having released the tight banding allowing full motion of skin back over the gland both wet and dry. Your body needs time to heal so be patient and do not over use this product or over stretch, slow and steady over 28 days with small improvements daily. Adult phimosis may return so please keep a stock available as occasional treatment may be required. We endeavour to supply in Seven to Fourteen days of receiving payment subsequently experiencing high demand please allow 30 days. Further instructions upon dispatching. Please be aware all orders are suspended the month of August and December due to clearing back orders, re-stocking and staff holidays.
