I am selling a cotbed which I've had at my Mother's for when my daughter has stayed over. She has outgrown this now so the item is now for sale.

It is in excellent condition, both the bed and mattress have had minimal use. There are no obvious marks on the bed and the mattress is in a perfect, extremely clean condition as a mattress protector was always used.

The cot converts to a bed and if I can remember correctly has an adjustable base. I collapsed this a while ago and brought it back home with the aim of selling it through the summer, but didn't quite get around to it.

No returns on this item, but you may view it in it's dismantled state.

Buyer to collect or I may be prepared to deliver if you are local to Derby - mileage at 25p per.
