530 Diesel 2003 M O Y 09/10/2016 Excellent performance and response also very economical on Motorways and long journey giving 50 + mpg. A little more thirsty when in town. But this is a performance car for quick acceleration, comfort at high speed. It is badged as M Sport and definitely performs as such. Car previously registered N19SH Private plate. This car has definitely been worked on..very quick! It has a low mileage which M O T's and receipts can confirm. We have owned for over 5 years and its never failed an M O T and has had regular oil, filters etc and recent tyres , brakes and last year, heater plugsHas slight hic up now nut no eml on and still performs fantastic, just erratic starting and kickdown at high speed sometimes let performance fdown. Some drivers wouldn't notice or even expect this performance...just being honest, as I think it is something minor But we are looking for a more sedate and higher up to sit in vehicle.Asit I, Not the car feeling age.....Any question, just ask through this.
