There are very few bikes that offer such good value for money as this. It is Kawasaki's KLE650 Versys. To summarise, it is a competent all rounder with a good seat height to offer good all round visibility to the rider and pillion alike. Its 650cc engine is one that gives a good return on fuel whilst still being nice an responsive to the turn of the throttle. This actual offering is a 2009 model finished in a deep metallic silver colour-option. It has a few extras fitted to it from its previous owner; most noticeably is a rear carrier from Givi, the ultimate luggage provider to the motorcycle industry. This means that you can get any of their Monokey top-boxes and simply lock it in place using a single-key operation and release it in the same way without investing in any other fittings etc. The previous owner has also installed a 12-volt power take off, a set of air horns in favour of the standard one and even a good looking, gloss black, vented, rear-wheel hugger to keep the road grime away from the back-end and underside. Priced keenly, it's unlikely to hang around, so don't be shy. Come along in person whenever suits you? We are here 7-days a week.
