For the professional who travels often, or the student who needs to print often and unpredictably, the Hewlett Packard OfficeJet 100 is a mobile printer suited to creating high-quality prints on the go. At only 13.7 inches (34.7 cm) wide, 3.3 inches (8.4 cm) high, 6.9 inches (17.5 cm) deep, and weighing approximately 5 lb (2.3 kg), this HP OfficeJet is about the size and weight of a standard size laptop. The Hewlett Packard OfficeJet 100 has a streamlined design for both appeal and easy portability, as evidenced by the control panel containing only a power switch and three extra buttons, one to feed paper into the printer, one to cancel a current printing job, and one to toggle Bluetooth wireless printing. The HP OfficeJet mobile printer paper tray can hold up to 50 sheets of paper, but adjustable sliders can accommodate paper media as small as a regular index card. The Hewlett Packard OfficeJet 100 uses one tri-colour and one black ink cartridge, both of which are loaded into the centre of the printer to conserve space and improve mobility. Users can expect printing speeds of about six pages of text per minute and two pages of graphics per minute.
