Grey, 2 owners, The 2014 Kawasaki Z1000SX is a clever, considered and very worthwhile update of an already excellent machine. The Z1000SX was already something of a connoisseurs' choice: fast, effective, decently equipped, involving, good value and yet understated and unshowy too. Kawasaki hasn't lost any of that. It hasn't thrown the baby out with the bath water. Instead it has corrected or improved what it genuinely needed based on feedback of the old model, enhanced what it didn't and then added a bang up to date technical cherry. Simply put, Kawasaki has made an already great bike even classier! Finance available. Call one of our sales team now for more details.
