We are an established educational Agency who can recommend experienced teachers, graduates and professional persons to give individual private tutoring in the home. All our registered tutors are fully qualified, continually monitored and thoroughly vetted by the Disclosure and Barring Services. We have experienced primary tutors available who are able to give additional help to pupils with their school work to ensure that they achieve highly in the classroom. All our tutors aim to encourage and to build confidence and tutoring will take place either in your home or the home of the tutor. Tutoring arrangements are made to mutual convenience. We offer realistic fees per hour and tutoring is, as and when you require it, there is no contract. Our initial advice and recommendation of a suitable tutor is an entirely free service without
