Perfect condition multi FX pedal by Boss home use only, Been using it to record direct to computer through it's built in usb interface. Has built in 30 second looper so you can real time layer recordings, cosm amp modelling from clean combos to raging stacks. Includes distortions, overdrives, modulation effects, delay, reverb, harmonist, and many more 6 built in sound libraries.

Built-in expression pedal controls a number of pedal effects; including wah, octave up/down, and a unique freeze effect

Three heavy-duty footswitches allow user to select sounds and perform other functions, such as accessing the built-in tuner.

Fantastic piece of kit especially for home recording, . Runs on 6 AA batteries that last pretty well or use the included power adaptor. Comes with usb cable and driver software.

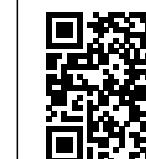

cost me £145 new now asking £60 or sensible near offer.

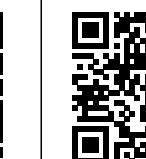

Only selling because cancer has returned and is now terminal so any offers keep it sensible please. Check my other items as I may be able to deal on packages.
