I'm selling my brilliant Pinnacle Cobalt One bike because I'm moving. I bought this bike around six months ago and I've only used it a handful of times and I want it to go to a good home where it will get the love it deserves. The whole time I have had it I've kept it inside the house and when it has been used I have really looked after it. The bike is like new, with a few minor marks. I bought the bike for £350 and also added a SKS Velo 42 Urban Mudguard Set front/back worth £15 (which I will include). Owner manual included. I also have x3 unused Bontrager Inner Tube's for the bike (worth £5.50 each) - if you would like these I will include them for an extra £10 (for all 3, saving £6.50).

Please let me know if you are interested, price isn't negotiable unfortunately as it's already a bargain!
 Located in BN1 and happy for you to collect.

This is the perfect bike if a mountain bike is a too heavy duty for you and a road bike too limiting. It has large-volume semi-treaded 700C tyres and a short-travel suspension fork which fulfils a wide range of duties on most surfaces. I love how easy it is to lock the suspension depending on the surface. From roads to towpath to woods and back to the roads with ease. It's a really versatile bike.

It has lightweight and powerful V-brakes and Shimano gearing. All the other specs are below -

Frame: 6061-T6 heat treated aluminium, double butted tubes
