If you're getting married between now and 30th May 2016 and still need to book a photographer - GET IN TOUCH - running a freeads exclusive last minute wedding deal!

I'm Natasha, currently living in Newport, South Wales but I photograph weddings all over the UK.

I graduated from University with a degree in Photography for Fashion and advertising and decided to use my knowledge to set up a Wedding Photography Company who specialise in high-end, fashion inspired photographs. Thus, Honeydew Moments was born! You can find more of my work by googling me!

I have been on my photographic journey since I was 14 and I still absolutely adore it, and to do it for a career, well I'm living the dream!

I want my photographs to each be a work of art that my couples would proudly hang in their homes. I am a complete perfectionist with every single image and every image is hand-edited, not batch edited!

I treat every client as a friend, and will always put in 100% into every single wedding. I am flexible in every aspect as I know no two weddings are the same.

At a wedding, I am not only the photographer, I am the girl who steps in to help confused groomsmen with their button holes, I am the girl who carries tissues to hand out to crying mother-of-the-brides, I am the one who captures those beautiful tiny moments during the day that would otherwise be missed by the wedding photographer.

If you're looking for a passionate, distinctive, personal wedding photographer, then you've got to hear me out!
