Blue, 2 owners, This bike has had 2 owners. It has been repainted black and comes with a top box and some service history. It does have signs of general wear and tear, which is to be expected for a bike of this age. It is an ideal winter bike. The Honda XL650V Transalp has been providing honest transport seemingly since the dawn of time. It's softly-chuffing charm and easy-going manners have won a devoted audience. The set-up of the forks and shock works and lasts very well. It's comfortable over tarmac and light dirt, and handles a pillion with ease. It's a fun bike to ride in this sit-up-and-beg package. There's a decent pull and from the motor and because it's a Honda it is very reliable. The North West's finest family run motorcycle dealership, £1,895 p/x
