Yew Cabinet. A nice piece of furniture in period style Yew veneer formerly used to house a TV. Would also lend itself to a drinks cabinet, fish tank cabinet, book case or display or hi fi cabinet. Open back and no shelves. A toggle on one doors has dropped off. Will include if found but assume missing. Has been cared for by my mum for years. Recently she downsized and can no longer accommodate. Cabinet is 930mm tall by 650mm width (external max). Top section has two bi-folding doors 560mm tall. Internal space 600mm width by 560mm height (max). Lower compartment hinges at bottom to reveal a space 200mm high (for such things as DVD's, videos, CD's, Cable turner).
