This car has had a full service recently. She failed her mot on slightly high emissions so does need a new cat, I was told it's just over 100 for a cat online then it's fitting it which works out much cheaper than taking her to a garage and having them supply it. I was told by three different mechanics that she is in very good condition otherwise under her hood. I'm looking for 700ono for a fast sale as its Christmas.;
