I am an amateur photographer,
Nottingham based.
I am offering my services completely free of charge!

i have been taking pictures for many years, but i want to take photography more seriously, so i bought myself a nikon d3300 DSLR to improve my skills and confidence. iv attended a couple of courses over the past 2 years and im hoping to make a career out of it.

i do portraits of adults, children, families and even your beloved pets. i also do wildlife, landscapes and buildings. im hoping to start doing weddings in a few months time, but im not experienced or confident enough yet. so if your wedding is from may/june onwards then please dont hesitate to contact me

Please contact me for any more information or bookings
Please note, im taking bookings now for next year, so book now to be guaranteed your preferred date(s)
