5 panel room divider. A fine black finish, large pane shoji screen with a lovely Japanese brush art rendering of a cherry tree in bloom on the front of the panels. Hand constructed from Scandinavian Spruce and fiber-reinforced Shoji rice paper, these screens are durable, lightweight and easy to fold up and move. This traditional style shoji screen allows diffused light though yet provides complete privacy. • Frame is crafted from durable, lightweight Scandinavian Spruce using Asian style mortise and tenon joinery • Panels are strong, fibre reinforced, pressed pulp rice paper • Lacquered, two-way hinges mean you can fold the panels in either direction Dimensions of each panel: • Height: 175cm • Width: 44cm Bought for £160 in September, selling due to moving house and no longer needing it. Collection only. £120 ono. Great.
