A great sounding, easy to play guitar perfect for beginners and able to stand up to hundreds of gigs and rehearsals.

I've been playing guitar for ten years and this is one of the most enjoyable guitars I've played due to its thin neck and low action. Three pickups make it suitable for a wide range of different sounds, I have used it recording with two different bands.

I am selling it because I am leaving the country. I have just replaced the strings and given the fretboard a deep clean, she is ready to roll!
