Great starter piano (+stool) - it hasn't been tuned for about three years but is in full working order (just one small repair on A4). Our daughter learnt to play on it and has been using it to play carols this Christmas so although it is out of tune it can still muster a tune! There is some small damage to the veneer at peddle level on one side but nothing serious (see photo). It is cheap because we appreciate that moving and tuning it will incur some extra cost. Piano stool.
