Green occasional chair. Excellent condition, hardly used, mainly been a display chair to add colour to the room. Very comfortable though if sat in, could be used as an everyday chair. Fabric is a type of plush velvety soft chenille. Not sure of the exact material. The fabric changes colour when touched, so in some lights if the fabric is touched or moved can appear darker or lighter as if you were stroking velvet, you can see this on the pictures. It is a solid piece of furniture with dark wood feet. Any questions please ask. When I collected this chair from the store it fitted in the back of my car with seats down and I had a mini at the time. This does not mean the chair is tiny, it is a substantial size chair and would work well for any size room. Originally cost £250.;
