I have some bucks that are 4 / 5 months old now for breeding or for pets that can now be neutered to be paired up if you have a doe or for lovely friendly indoor pets. I have a chin £45, blue (grey) £45, a deep orange £50 and a 6 month old pure white buck £55. these all come from an experienced breeder that believes in the 5 freedoms for bunnies and does not bred in commercial small cage conditions. they have daily exercise and come wormed and mite treated, changeover food, play tunnel and a care sheet (worth £)
