2008 Audi A3 - 1.6 petrol engine.

Car is jet black in colour, with alloy wheels and all mod cons such as power steering, electric heated mirrors, alarm, safety central locking system etc. I have owned the car around 3 years myself and bought direct from a dealership.

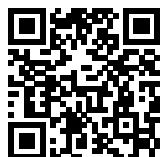

The car has had two previous owners prior to myself and has been well looked after by all. Service history stamps in the book etc. I have not had any major issues with this car and over the years have had services completed as well as tyres replaced. alloys could do with a bit of a refurb, some are scratched just from General wear and tear. Also the back windscreen wiper has all of a sudden stopped working, I have been assured by a mechanic friend this is not an expensive job but just have not got round to sorting since having a baby. The car was initially going to go up for £5,500 but I have taken a massive chunk off in consideration to alloys and back wiper. Car has MOT and tax. (MOT DUE ON 8/1/16 BUT I WILL BE GETTING THIS DONE PRIOR TO SELLING SO CAR WILL COME WITH NEW MOT) I am selling the car due to having a baby. I really am struggling with the 3 door, so I am in the hunt for a 5 door.

I will genuinely be sad to see this go, as it's a great little car Please feel free to ask any questions direct. Thank you ;
