Learn how to sing and perform in a relaxed and friendly environment. Whether you are an existing performer or want to sing for fun, this is a great chance to build confidence and learn new skills. Holly has 20 years experience in singing and performance. Has a bachelor of Arts from Brighton university and a Diploma in popular music. Holly's work as a professional singer has lead her to explore a broad range of vocal disciplines including: Classical, Music theatre, Folk, Country as well as a broad range of Contemporary and Pop styles. She has performed professionally throughout the UK at prestigious venues: Edinburgh festival, The Purcell rooms, and the Queen Elizabeth hall on South Bank. Holly is an enthusiastic teacher with plenty of experience teaching both children and adults. She works with students whether it is preparing for grades, auditions or learning just for fun!

Currently teaching for various schools/ theatre schools, privately (solo or group lessons available).

Other experience includes:

- Featured soloist for More Music Variety in association with Splash FM Radio.
- Vocalist for private events such as weddings and private functions.
- Professional recording sessions.
- Director/Organizer & Lead Performer – Live Lounge in aid of Cancer Research UK
- Classical training for 7 years. Exploring Composers such as Ivor Novello, Michael Head, Schubert, Bach, Brahms and Mozart.
- Training from Lena Phillips-(FLCM, LRAM, ALCM)
- Workshop with vocal coach, Mary Hammond. Contact me at: love2learn87@hotmail
